INCASA is proud to announce the sixth "Trial by Jury" advanced training conference for 2010. This Conference will combine multi-perspective learning activities in an effort to elicit a systematic response to sexual assault within the criminal justice system. Prison rape, often unreported and seldom prosecuted will be the focus of this year's conference, in partnership with the IU Law School and Indiana Department of Corrections.

Agenda:

- 8:00 Registration (coffee, tea provided)
- 8:30 Mock Trial-Voir Dire-Trial begins (opening remarks, admission of evidence, and testimony)
- 12 Noon Working lunch/Open questioning with experts
- 1:00 Discussion of Ethics proceedings from a.m.
- 1:30 Trial Proceedings Continue (more testimony, challenges, and ethics considerations)
- 3:00 Deliberation and Verdict
- 4:00 Ethics standards questions
- 4:30 Adjournment
- 5:00 Wine Reception

Judge Hughes has graced us by accepting to again lead the Mock Trial. Honorable William J. Hughes has served as the judge of Hamilton Superior Court 3 since July 1, 1988. Prior to assuming the bench he was a partner with the law firm of Campbell, Kyle, Proffitt. Judge Hughes is a member of the Jury Committee of the Indiana Judicial Conference and serves as the chairman of the Heartland Pro Bono Council. He is also a member of the Indiana State and Hamilton County Bar Associations, the National Council of Family and Juvenile Court Judges, and the American Judicature Society. Judge Hughes is a graduate of the University of Evansville (BS, Magna Cum Laude, 1977) and Indiana University School of Law at Indianapolis (JD, Magna Cum Laude, 1980). (Indianapolis only.)

Jennifer Lukemeyer, Attorney at Law. Ms. Lukemeyer will play the role of our Defense Attorney. Since 1997, Ms. Lukemeyer has practiced law with the firm Voyles, Zahn, Paul, Hogan & Merriman. Prior to practicing with the firm, Ms. Lukemeyer practiced law with the Marion County Public Defenders Agency, in major felony court. The focus of Ms. Lukemeyer practice is criminal defense, including major felonies, juvenile matters, domestic violence, and appellate work.

She is a member of the Indianapolis Bar Association, National Association of Criminal Defense Attorneys, Indianapolis Inn of Courts. She recently served on the Marion County Criminal Justice Planning Commission Strategic Workshop for Juvenile Justice. Ms. Lukemeyer is a graduate from the University of South Carolina (BS) and Southern Methodist University (JD).

Karen Jensen, Attorney at Law, graduated from Indiana University School of Law in 1992. She practiced with Cohen & Malad until joining the Marion County prosecutor's office in 1995. Karen worked in the juvenile, Domestic Violence, sex crimes and general felony divisions of the prosecutor's office until leaving in 2005 to start her own practice.

Ms. Jensen focused her practice on criminal defense and family law until returning to the prosecutor's office in 2009. She is a mediator and currently certified to mediate family law. She is married & has 4 children, 2 cats, 2 dogs and unnumbered fish. Karen and her oldest daughter rehab distressed real estate (in her spare time). She has attained master gardener certification and is a bee keeper.

Is it a time for a change?

- Are you or a loved one a survivor of sexual violence?
- Frustrated by the attitude of many people in our society regarding sexual assault
- Dissatisfied with current laws regarding sexual violence?
- Think that state and local anti-rape organizations should receive more funding
- Interested in joining an advocacy group that will create a grassroots organization to provide emotional and legal support for survivors of sexual violence while connecting existing organizations throughout Indiana?
